Meeet Forever Plaid - Mark Daly, Adam King, Stewart Reeve and Ethan Jones. Adam King was last seen on stage at Spotlight playing the debonair Lawrence in Dirty Rotten Scoundrels. He has been busy behind the scenes as well, as Assisitant Director for Little Shop of Horrors (where he also voiced Audrey 2 for a number of performances) and the blockbuster DUSTY. Adam brings a wealth of professional experience to Forever Plaid, as does Stewart Reeve. Stewart first appeared at Spotlight as Jacob the maid in La Cage aux Folles quickly followed by Leo Blum in The Producers. He endeared himself to audiences as Leaf in the award winning The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee and starred as Seymour in Little Shop of Horrors. Stewart played the dual role of Princeton and Rod in yet another award winner – Avenue Q and is embracing the challenge of Forever Plaid. Playing multiple roles in DUSTY was Ethan Jones' debut at Spotlight and he is currently monkeying around as a Wickersham Brother in Seussical. Mark Daly is a gifted musician who is currntly fronting a band called Bambibi. He is making his musical theatre debut in Forever Plaid. Accornng to the production team rehearsals are going well and it is not unusual to see Spotlighters gathered around the doorways listening to the boys rehearse! This will be a show not to be missed.

SUCCESSFUL BLOOD BROTHERS AUDITIONS PROMISES ANOTHER GREAT SHOW FOR 2012 SEASON

There was a great turnout for the Blood Brothers auditions held Sunday 19th February in the Main Theatre. Some new faces among the talented auditionees and some more familiar.

Director Clem Halpin, who hopes to repeat the success of his last production of this same show, has his work cut out as there were at least two possibilities for each of the lead roles. Some wonderful singing which brought tears to our eyes just made the task more difficult. With the talent on offer on Sunday, Blood Brothers promises to be yet another success in a long line of extremely well received productions for Spotlight Theatre over the past few years.

BLOOD brothers

FROM THE DIRECTOR OF BLOOD BROTHERS - CLEM HALPIN

We had a very successful day with around 30 people auditioning for only around 17 parts. By the end of the day the panel of five were quite frazzled, the talent was amazing, one performance actually moved us to tears, in a good way.

We had Call Backs Tuesday 21st February and should have the show 97% cast. Of course the old story, always looking for men ... If there are any out there we need three men for ensemble who could do some small bit parts.

The hardest job for the panel will be choosing Mrs Johnstone the central character. We have four very talented ladies in the running for the role and probably all four could do the part justice. I guess that's the sort of problem every director would like to have.

Also thanks to our panel, the talented David McNeven – Musical Director, Russell Williams for ever helpful, assistance to the director, Shelly Halpin and Kate Tardy – Costume Design and Set Decorators, always clever, always laughing and talking.

Thanks to Helen Maden and Ashley Tardy for the time that they gave on Audition Day to read with cast applicants. I don't know what we would have done without them.

PS. I went to see Seussical Saturday night 18th and it was amazing. Congratulations to Director Kim Reynolds and all who put the effort in to get the show to such a great standard. Costumes were fantastic, cast were perfect and you can't help but have a great night. Go see it.

SPOTLIGHT ON YOUTH THEATRE

ADMINISTRATOR: LEA VOSTI

TEACHERS:
PETER MORRISSEY (Drama)
and ASHLEY TARDY (Musical Theatre)

FROM PETER'S DESK

Greetings and salutations from youth central in the Basement Theatre. There are big changes in our 2012 Youth Theatre staff line up as we welcome Jess Papst to take up the reins as teacher in the High School Musical Theatre with Ashley heading off to that great southern city of arty cafes and edgy theatre. Her sizeable shoes will also be filled by Terri Woodfine who has taken the position as my trusty Assistant Teacher and has already proven herself a valuable asset. I'd say good luck to Ashley though talent speaks volumes that luck could never hope to fill. We'll miss her greatly.

We're off to a flying start in the classes with a great bunch of newbies strutting their stuff before the many returnees (we actually have one girl in her sixth year!). The early weeks of the year are devoted mainly to improvisation, movement and voice workshops to establish some basic stagecraft skills for those new to the game. The old hands are valuable in the early weeks as they show some very keen acting skills and show just how high the bar is set. I sometimes find it daunting when I see a twelve year old performing a scene with great power and conviction and I wonder what they'll be able to do with another few years on the stage. Exciting stuff!

Peter Morrissey

PICS BY PETER MORRISSEY

FROM ASHLEY'S DESK

With my last few weeks left teaching Youth Theatre I find myself reflecting on these past few years and thinking just how lucky I am to have been able to watch these kids grow up into truly amazing performers and people. I can't thank Spotlight enough for giving me this opportunity, I have loved every minute and will miss it terribly. However, I am confident in the fact that our new teacher Jess Papst will keep the spirit of theatre alive in your children. I wish both Jess and Terri all the best for 2012 and the years to come. To my kids, some of whom I've taught for the past 7 years, thank you for your enthusiasm, dedication and passion for the theatre. I will miss you and I look forward to seeing the wonderful work you produce this year. Duncan, thank you for your ongoing support and encouragement. Peter, you're a wonderful teacher and I have learnt so much from you, thank you for everything and finally to mother Kate it just isn't Youth Theatre without you, I can't thank you enough. All the best everyone for 2012.

Ashley Tardy

Terri, Ashley and Jess

FROM Y T ADMINISTRATOR

Wow! our total Youth Theatre is 244 – 35 more than this time last year. We have closed all classes and now have waiting lists.

Just a reminder to all parents please make sure the students are dressed in comfortable, casual, serviceable clothes and closed in shoes (runners, court etc.).

We are sorry to have to tell you Ashley Tardy, our Music Theatre Teacher is leaving us at the end of this term. She is relocating to Melbourne to further her career. We will miss her immensely. We have been very lucky to replace Ashley with Jess Papst who is an experienced Drama & Dance Teacher in a Brisbane High School. Jess is also an experienced singer, dancer and actress in her own right. Terri Woodfine will be Peter's Assistant in the Primary & High School Drama classes. She is an ex Youth Theatre girl having helped Ashley the last two years. She is also in her third year of University and Terri also is an experienced Singer, Dancer and Actress. So together with Peter we are in good hands.

Cheers,

SPOTLIGHT ON THE GOLDEN GIRLS

February saw rehearsals begin for this year: new songs, new dance routines, new costumes, and all ready by March 2 when we gave our first show of the season.

The company now consists of seven performers: Noni Buckland, Margaret de Mestre, Janet Mannix, Phyllis Robertson, Patricia Teal-Gosper, and Muriel Watson. We are pleased to welcome Margaret Caughy to our group as a new member. Marilyn Hodge is our non-performing Director and Eula James is continuing at the piano.

At present we have thirty bookings and so we are looking forward to a busy year.

PRESIDENT'S REPORT

The year seems to be racing through at the theatre as our Youth Theatre settle into their classes and the first show in the Main Theatre opens and rehearsals and auditions are under way for the next two shows.

As usual the theatre and its loyal band of volunteers keeps getting busier.

The standards that we have set always seem to be getting higher and our current production of Seussical[™] wonderfully directed by award winning Director Kym Reynolds has certainly raised the bar. This fabulous show has all the ingredients of a very entertaining colourful night out and is a show for all age groups. If you are looking for fun and laughter then get along to this production. Tickets are on sale on line at www.spotlighttheatre.com.au so book now and enjoy the experience.

Our Youth Theatre has a couple of new teachers Jess Paptz (High School Music Theatre) and Terri Woodfine (assistant to Drama Teacher Peter Morrissey), as we farewell the much loved and talented Ashley Tardy. Ashley is starting a new adventure in her life and off to experience the culture of Melbourne and on behalf of The Spotlight Theatrical Company I would like to take this opportunity to publicly thank Ashley for her wonderful contribution, dedication and commitment she has shown and given to the company over the past six years and wish her good luck and every success in her new adventures and hope that one day we will see Ashley back at Spotlight in some capacity. Welcome to Jess and Terri who most of you will know as they have performed in many shows at Spotlight and offer a lot of experience and knowledge to our students. Our Youth Theatre is very fortunate to have such dedicated teachers as Peter, Jess and Terri as well as Ashley.

Your committee continues to work extraordinary hours to make sure that the theatre meets all its responsibilities and I would like to thank Patsy, Tony, Kate, Chris H, Chris D, Russell, Shirley, Karen, Katrina, Gail and Rhylee for their commitment.

We are also unfortunately losing one of our committee members Rhylee who is also venturing down to Victoria to experience the culture of Melbourne and I would like to wish Rhylee every success and thank her for her outstanding contribution to the company.

The shop continues to survive in this difficult climate and I remind all members that they receive a discount on costume hire (Special Discounts for Members during March Madness) and all funds raised go towards making the Theatre the best it can be, so please support the shop and tell all your friends about it. It is amazing that there are people on the Gold Coast that do not know that we have a hire shop so please spread the word, it helps all of us.

Lastly I have finally become a grandfather on February 2nd when our youngest son Luke and his partner Claire presented Lorrae and I with our first granddaughter. As you can tell I am a very proud grandparent and carry the brag book around if you would like to see the photos.

That's about it from me this month .

So until next time look after yourself and each other.

Best regards

Duncan

MEMBERSHIP NEWS

Dear Members,

Our membership is up 103 on this time last year and only 45 less than last year's June figure. So we should be higher than June this year. As you can see, I've been a tad busy.

I have put all the New Members on post for this month's Spotlighter as I have trouble reading some of the email addresses. Please send Shirley or myself an email so we can put you on the email list for advice re posting of monthly Spotlighter to our web page:

www.spotlighttheatre.com.au.

Please if you have changed your address details for postal and email, please advise Shirley (email: sking0562@gmail.com) or me (email: leavosti@gcmanors.com). We need to keep our records updated.

Cheers,

Lea
